CFO Annette Kumlien leaves Munters for a new assignment

Annette Kumlien, Group Vice President and CFO of Munters, has today announced that she has decided to leave the company for a new assignment. Annette will remain in her current role during her notice period, but for a maximum of six months.

"Annette's strong commitment to drive Munters' strategic transformation has been of great importance for the journey Munters is on and she leaves a solid strategy- and finance function behind. She has been a highly appreciated member of Munters' management team and I wish her the best of luck in her new assignment," says Klas Forsström, President and CEO.

"My time at Munters has been very exciting and I am proud of what we have achieved in recent years. I look forward to my new challenging role at the same time as I will follow Munters' development with great interest," says Anette Kumlien.

The process of recruiting a new CFO will be initiated immediately.
