

Munters appoints Line Dovärn as Head of Investor Relations

Munters Group AB has appointed Line Dovärn as Head of Investor Relations (IR), she will take on her new position as of December 1st, 2024.

Line Dovärn has been appointed Head of IR for Munters. Line joined Munters in September 2021 as Director of Investor Relations and has over the years been a part of developing and driving the investor relations agenda for the group. She has many years of extensive experience from the financial sector, particularly in investor relations, credit analysis, and treasury management from Swedbank and Nordax Bank.

"Line combines investor relation expertise with in-depth knowledge of our business. Her efforts in ensuring that the financial market has a comprehensive understanding of Munters is extremely valuable," says Katharina Fischer, CFO and GVP of Munters.

"I am confident in her ability to drive our strategic ambitions forward and make a significant contribution to our continued success."

Line will assume her position as of December 1st, 2024 and report to the CFO. Line will succeed Ann-Sofi Jönsson who will leave the company in February 2025 for the position as Head of IR & Sustainability reporting at Electrolux Group.
